- Saskatchewan- Deer Hunt, Redwillow Outfitting Inc. (306) 768-2671 www.redwillowhunting.com. Rut hunt! This hunt is for 1 week in November, 2011 season (no exceptions). This 6-day hunting package includes guide (2x1), meals and accommodations in a remote northern boreal forest located in Saskatchewan, Canada. The excellent populations of mature bucks along with the wilderness setting of log cabins heated by wood stoves and large portions of hearty home-cooked meals make this a week-long hunting adventure for the true sportsman. This is a treestand hunt, rifle season. You travel into the remote camp by All Terrain Vehicle (ATV's) on a Sunday, begin hunting Monday morning until Saturday noon. You must fly to Saskatoon, then either rent a vehicle or get on a charter van service that brings you to Carrot River, a 3-hour drive from Saskatoon. Outfitter or guides meet you at Carrot River, where you pick up your licenses, and then proceed to camp. After the hunt, you return to Saskatoon. Overnight accommodations in Saskatoon on arrival and departure not included. Alternate travel arrangements, such as driving the whole distance with your own vehicle are possible. This will require anywhere from 25-30 hours of driving time each way, depending on where you live. Game Care: Guides will field dress and cape your animal and prepare antlers for travel(included in price of the hunt), or you can leave them with a local taxidermist for mounting. Extra costs: Licenses appx $400, gratuities. Value- $4400
